

1.7 MEMBERSHIP

Membership

To comply with provincial laws and regulations, the Association maintains a membership list that includes:

- a) Name
- b) Address
- c) Date that he/she first became a member

Availability of Membership List

With reasonable notice (not more than five working days), the membership list will be made available to be viewed by members of the Association and copies of the membership list will be available to members of the Association.

Confidentiality of Membership List

It is a policy of the Association to not sell or otherwise pass a membership list on. People, despite being members have the right to a measure of privacy. That includes, but is not limited to, protection from telephone solicitation and from lobbying in internal politics of the Association.

The Association will ensure that the membership are made aware of the above policy and commit to acting on behalf of any individual who feels that their privacy is being intruded upon.

If a member has a concern or wishes to make a formal complaint, they may do so in writing to the Executive Director. The concern or complaint will be addressed as per the Conflict Resolution Policy.
