

The Burnaby Association for Community Inclusion
&
Community Living British Columbia

*Invite You to Learn More About:
Building Informal Safeguards and Networks for Young Children with Special Needs*

- Who should attend? Families currently involved with IDP, graduates of IDP, anyone connected with a child with special needs
- When is it happening? Monday September 17, 2007
6:30 to 8:30 pm (Join us at 6pm for a light dinner)
- Where is it happening? Burnaby Association for Community Inclusion
2702 Norland Avenue
Burnaby, BC
Large Education Room (up the stairs and down the hall)

CALLING ALL IMPORTANT PEOPLE IN THE LIVES OF YOUNG CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS THAT MEANS YOU!

Moms, Dads, Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, Grandparents, Brothers, Sisters, Close Friends and others are welcome and encouraged to attend:

In this interactive session, we will:

- Talk about the vulnerabilities of young children with special needs
- Learn about safeguards and what they mean
- Provide information on the development of informal safeguards and the importance of family and close friends in developing informal safeguards
- Share the challenges of developing networks that will help keep children safe and connected in the community
- Highlight successful strategies

Please join us for this evening of lively and informative discussion

For more information about this session, please contact: Jennifer Baumbusch at BACI at 604-290-6086 (parent.support@gobaci.com) or Jule Hopkins, Manager of Service Accountability and Safeguards at CLBC at 604-687-0167

*Limited childcare is available, if needed, please call BACI Reception at 604-299-7851*

